

Desiree Gonzalez and Robin Gonzalez went to Intervention for a meeting regarding the G.P.S. device for Desiree Gonzalez. Upon arriving there, Intervention informed Desiree and Robin of the existence of the new warrant. Desiree Gonzalez along with her mother, Robin Gonzalez, agreed that Desiree Gonzalez would go peacefully into custody and without incident. Since that event, Desiree Gonzalez has remained in custody. The original $100,000.00 bond has not been forfeited.

C.R.S. §16-4-110 controls when a person acting as principal or surety can request when a bond shall be exonerated. C.R.S. § 16-4-110(d) states as follows:

(d) Upon surrender of the defendant into custody at any time before a judgment has been entered against the sureties for forfeiture of the bond, upon payment of all costs occasioned thereby. A surety may seize and surrender the defendant to the sheriff of the county wherein the bond is taken, and it is the duty of the sheriff, on such surrender and delivery to him or her of a certified copy of the bond by which the surety is bound, to take the person into custody and, by writing, acknowledge the surrender. If a compensated surety is exonerated by surrendering a defendant prior to the initial appearance date fixed in the bond, the court, after a hearing, may require the surety to refund part or all of the bond premium paid by the defendant if necessary to prevent unjust enrichment. Id.

In this case, Robin Gonzalez, on behalf of Desiree Gonzalez, posted the $100,000.00 as a surety or principal. She was present and assisted in turning Desiree Gonzalez into custody a peaceful manner. This would constitute a seizure for the purpose of this statute. As a result, the statute states that the bond shall be exonerated.

WHEREFORE, counsel requests the original $100,000.00 bond be exonerated and returned to Mrs. Robin Gonzalez.

Dated this 28th day of June, 2023.
